Hi Daisy;

I am in Antalya now. I came here for holiday last Sunday. On Monday we went rafting with my brother, Sam. It was dangerous and very challenging. Next day we tried bungee jumping with my dad. It was heart stopping. I will never do it again. Yesterday I went trekking with my friends. I would rather go trekking than rafting and bungee jumping. When I come back to Ankara, I will join a trekking club. We are coming back in two days.

See you there

Trevor

In my opinion, the best way to spend a holiday is visiting different places. For example, first I am planning to visit the Hagia Sophia Museum this summer. It is a mixture of Ottoman and Byzantine architecture. Then, I will go to France to see Eiffel Tower. It is the symbol of France. My next station will be Niagara Falls. To me, it is a fantastic place. It is the international border between Canada and the United States. People say I should see New York city but I am not going to visit there. I will be very close but I don't like modern structures. My final station will be Mexico. Chichen Itza is one of the most visited, archeological sites in Mexico. I hope it will be a perfect holiday.
