5- Choose your emotion in the pictures according to the paragraph (3x5=15p)

Weather can change how we feel. When it is sunny, we often feel happy. The sun is warm and bright. When it is raining, we might feel sad. Rain can make the day dark. Sometimes, when it is cloudy, we feel sleepy. Clouds hide the sun, and everything is grey. But when it snows, we can feel excited. Snow is white and pretty. It covers everything like a blanket. We can play in the snow. So, weather can make us feel different emotions. It is interesting how the sky can change our feelings.
